

YOUTH EXCHANGE BREAD & ROSES

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

AIM: to develop tools and working methods to raise awareness on the importance of promoting gender equality as an important pillar within the Human Rights and to multiply the raising awareness action within the local communities in Europe.

BREAD and ROSES is a pilot project, including strategic actions with the following specific objectives:

SPECIFIC OBJECTIVES YOUTH EXCHANGES

- to raise awareness among young people on gender-sensitive issues within an intercultural perspective;
- to raise awareness among young people on gender-based stereotypes and their potential consequences and on the importance of promoting gender equality;
- to make the young people experimenting new tools, such as graphic facilitation and photos, to afterwards raise awareness on the importance of gender equality among groups of peers.

TARGET GROUP

Young people and young people at risk of exclusion (aged between 18-25).

METHODOLOGY

The whole project will be based on non formal education - NFE methodologies and for this reason, it will be articulated following the NFE main pillars:

- flexibility, being learner-centred, contextualized and based on the promotion of participatory approaches;
- horizontal cooperation, where facilitators and experts create a shared learning path with participants and trainees, encouraging the exchange of knowledge;
- personal empowerment through self-esteem raising, development of the self-confidence, competences and skills development.

During the project it will be proposed a LEARNING BY DOING APPROACH: the specific learning objectives are organized to be practically experimented through interactive activities and to ensure a coherent learning process. Furthermore, methods will be re-adapted during the process, taking into account the needs of participants and of the different actors involved.
